ADVISORY

Our Association's property has been stolen.
Some of our signs and metal frames that we use to promote community events have been stolen at the Main Entrance. If anyone has any information about this stolen property please contact our Association's Administrator Ted Brocker (210-829-7202).

Please Note:

One of the signs that was stolen was the Happy Hour Social Event at the Clubhouse this Saturday evening. This event is still on!

Be sure to check the News & Events Page on our community web site at <http://www.orvhoa.com/> for more news and detail information.

Sincerely,

eNEWS Team - Communications Committee
Oak Ridge Village Homeowners Association, Inc.
